

Rolf Ansten Auke`s biography.

Dr. Rolf Ansten Auke is a world renowned speaker who has his theological education from both Norway and the U.S.A. He has an honorary doctorate for his wide and multiple work as a teacher, preacher and author. He has written several books and his book entitled "A Happy Life", has been printed in several hundred thousand copies, in six languages, and spread over large areas of the world. He has just written a new book which is about to be published. Dr. Rolf Ansten Auke has recorded seven different discs, has for many years run a radio station and worked in a T.V. studio. He has also taken a P.H.D, Doctor of Philosophy in Theology. He lectures at universities and teaches at bible schools and High Schools in the subjects of communication, practical service and the gifts and empowerment of the Holy Spirit. In addition he holds seminars in nearly all denominations within the church, also for the government, church leaders and businessmen. Dr. Rolf Ansten Auke is continually holding big campaigns in many different countries gathering thousands to his meetings where many people get saved. He also provides practical help for childrens homes and the poor. He has his own way of combining strait talking and humor something that has made him a treasured and popular speaker.